

Proposition F

This is the sixth of twelve proposed Propositions to amend the City of Brenham's Home Rule Charter which will be considered by the voters in the May 3, 2025 Special Election.

What you will see on the ballot:

PROPOSITION F

- ☐ YES Shall Article III, Sections 9 and 11 of the Brenham City Charter be amended by providing that the regular municipal elections of the City shall be held on the uniform election date in May of odd-numbered years, or on any other uniform election date authorized by law?
- ☐ NO

Why is this Proposition on the ballot?

Proposition F will amend the Brenham City Charter by mandating that all regular city elections will be held on uniform election dates in May of odd-numbered years or on any other uniform election date authorized by law.

How will this Proposition change the Charter?

ARTICLE III. THE CITY COUNCIL

Sec. 9. - Regular election days.

The regular municipal elections of the City of Brenham shall be held on the ~~second Saturday~~ uniform election date in May in odd-numbered years or any other uniform election date as authorized by law.

Sec. 11. - Special elections; state election laws control elections.

All elections provided for in this Charter, except the regular election of Councilmembers held on the uniform election date ~~second Saturday~~ in May of odd-numbered years or on any other date as authorized by law, shall be called special elections, and all elections shall be conducted and results canvassed and announced by the election authorities as prescribed by the general election laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and said general election laws shall control in all municipal elections, except as otherwise herein provided.

What does it mean to vote YES on this Proposition?

If you vote YES on this proposition, you are voting to amend the Brenham City Charter to read as follows:

ARTICLE III. THE CITY COUNCIL

Sec. 9. - Regular election days.

The regular municipal elections of the City of Brenham shall be held on the uniform election date in May in odd-numbered years or any other uniform election date as authorized by law.

Sec. 11. - Special elections; state election laws control elections.

All elections provided for in this Charter, except the regular election of Councilmembers held on the uniform election date in May of odd-numbered years or on any other date as authorized by law, shall be called special elections, and all elections shall be conducted and results canvassed and announced by the election authorities as prescribed by the general election laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and said general election laws shall control in all municipal elections, except as otherwise herein provided.

What does it mean to vote NO on this Proposition?

If you vote NO on this proposition, you are voting to keep the Brenham City Charter as it is currently worded:

ARTICLE III. THE CITY COUNCIL

Sec. 9. - Regular election days.

The regular municipal elections of the City of Brenham shall be held on the second Saturday in May in odd-numbered years or any other date as authorized by law.

Sec. 11. - Special elections; state election laws control elections.

All elections provided for in this Charter, except the regular election of Councilmembers held on the second Saturday in May of odd-numbered years or on any other date as authorized by law, shall be called special elections, and all elections shall be conducted and results canvassed and announced by the election authorities as prescribed by the general election laws of the State of Texas relating to cities and towns, and said general election laws shall control in all municipal elections, except as otherwise herein provided.

What is the budget impact of this Proposition?

There is no budget impact if Proposition F is approved.