

ARE YOU READY?

How to become a firefighter in Texas
VOLUNTEER | CAREER | EMT | BRENHAM FIRE

VOLUNTEER - State Fireman's & Fire Marshals Association

- 18yrs of age
- NFPA 1001 Firefighter I & II (written and skills test)
- NFPA 1072 Hazmat Awareness & Operations (written and skills test)
- Medical Training
- Completion of this training along with Emergency Medical Responder (EMR) training will allow you to challenge the TCFP Basic Firefighter Test
- How to get the training?
 - In house at a fire department
 - TEEX Annual Schools and area schools
 - Online training

sffmatx.org

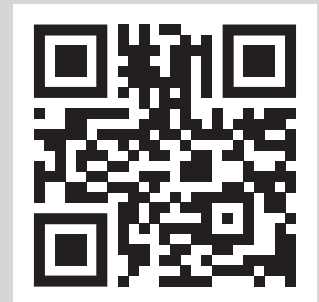

tcfp.texas.gov

CAREER - Texas Commission on Fire Protection

- 18yrs of age
- NFPA 1001 Firefighter I & II (written and skills test)
- NFPA 1072 Hazmat Awareness & Operations (written and skills test)
- Completion of training of Emergency Medical Responder (EMR)
- How to get the training?
 - In person Fire Academy, Monday - Friday All Day
 - Online Fire Academy

EMT - Texas Department of State Health Service

- 18yrs of age
- Complete Emergency Medical Technician Training
- Pass National Registry test.
- How to get the training
 - In person classes (Blinn or TEEX)
 - Online classes

dshs.texas.gov

cityofbrenham.org/fire

Brenham Fire Department

- 18yrs of age
- Criminal background check
- NFPA 1001 Firefighter I & II
- NFPA 1072 Hazmat Awareness & Operations
- SFFMA Certification within 1 year of membership
- Requirements
 - Live in response area for at least 6 months
 - Annual Number of Response
 - Annual Training Hours

More than just firefighting...