Retired Deputy Chief Raymond Chestly Thaler Sr., age 87, passed away on October 2nd. He began his career with the Brenham Police Department in 1954. He rose through the ranks of the department to Deputy Police Chief and held that position until his retirement in 1992. He gave 38 years of service to our department and the citizens of the community. Raymond was married to the love of his life, Annie Laurie (Rothermel) for 64 years. They had two children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Raymond was the brother of long time CPAAA member James D. Rothermel. The family included past and present members of the Brenham Police Department and Washington County Sheriff's Office as honorary pallbearers. I was honored to have participated in the service.

So begins the Goodman Era at BPD

Chris Jackson was recognized for his 15 years of service to BPD, that same day at City Hall!

The After Party

After the Swearing-In Ceremony, was this after party.

See all the stickers on the board; they were great little messages to our new Chief; some were even inspiring!

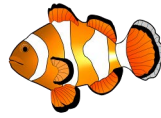

Terry says, the Party is over; back to work Craig! Looks good in his uniform, right ladies!

National Night Out - 2015

At BPD preparing for National Night Out, getting assignments and addresses for the nights activities. We were warned : "Don't eat too much at your first stop". Talk about "pearls of wisdom", thanks Chris!

A busy, but fun night for all of the participants at the 20 plus Block Parties. A Public Relations bonanza for the city. Did I mention the food and of course the FUN!

Cpl. Seth Klehm and Ofc. Ronnie were a hit at every block party they attended!

Trey and the Chief pick their favorites at this Block Party/Car Show? I want to stop by there next time!

Todd's Big Send-Off There were speeches, hand shakes, smiles, gifts, goodies, and war stories (not too embarrassing); and of course hugs all around!!

Good Luck Chief Jacobs!!

Left and Right: We finally got to present Glen Daugherty with his 2nd Quarter Office Angel Award. Chris, Jean, the Chief and Rob say it was well deserved! CONGRATS!

I'm just sayin!

Overheard at this unusual traffic stop. No Officer, I don't have a lead foot; just city issued steel toed boots!

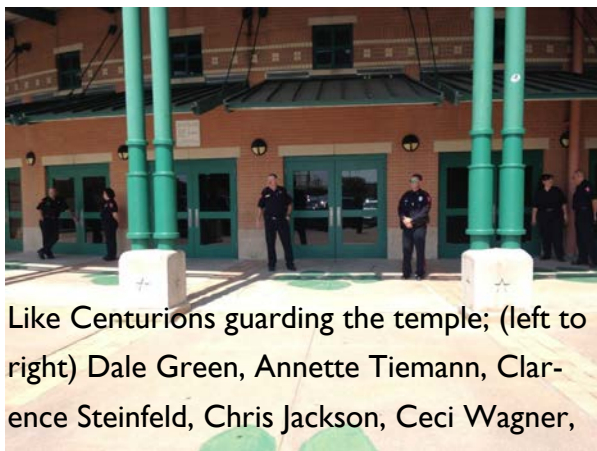

That caption was already on the photo when I found it. That rocking chair does look a little more comfortable than that metal bench. Just sayin!

The answer to that age old question. Why do Police Officers always know where their sunglasses are? Duh!

As eluded to on page 4 here are some of the messages left on the board for the Chief: "Your blueprint is our success, lead the way" Terrence Johnson. "Welcome aboard the Enterprise" David Webb. "Welcome! We are excited to have you here with us" Heather Sowders. "We gonna do some police work???" Anonymous

Adam's Angels 5-K Dash

The weather was beautiful for a run, cool and clear, no chance of rain. That's a good thing for a race, and an even better thing for a fundraising event. Almost five hundred participants signed up for the event, including our three most recent Chiefs' of Police: Rex Phelps, Craig Goodman and Traelan Nickerson (Traelan, if you remember, was Chief for a day a couple of years back {GOTCHA!}). Of course Cpl. Chris Jackson ran the course; as did Det. Richard Bobbitt (they have both been running this as long as I have been here). I am sure there were several other BPD and CPAAA/COP participants running that day, but I was kind of busy with traffic concerns to see everyone; but they looked like they were enjoying themselves.

As in past years, BPD, Sheriff's Officers, County COPs, Road Dept, BNSF, and COPs all worked together to ensure the safety of the participants and the success of the event. While I did say a brief hello to event organizers (like founder Donna Culliver); I can only assume that this years event was a big success. The final tally is still not in, but from my bystander perspective, everything turned out great. It was heart warming to see so many friendly people out for such a great cause; to help families that are struggling to cope with a child stricken with cancer. Adam's Angels provides care and comfort through physical, emotional, financial and spiritual support to families dealing with a child that has cancer; now that's a great cause!

Top left: Chief Phelps, Chief Goodman and Chris Jackson at the start of the race. Middle: Chief Traelan Nickerson near the finish line. Top right: They finish the race!

Even the riders were cheered on by the Blinn and BHS Cheer Squads. Cancer patients and volunteers rode.

Deputy Dairius Smith and County COP Gary Baldwin helped with traffic control

Ahhh, the "FINISH LINE" What a GREAT DAY!!!
