New officer Carley Lee will start with the department August 24, 2026. Chief explained the Sgt promotion process. There is an opening in CID (Criminal Investigations Division) and that spot should be filled very soon. With the start of school this week, command staff conducted a walk through today with BISD Administration. National Night Out is October 6, 2026. Chief asked that everyone encourage neighborhood parties. The City of Brenham will have an event downtown. Staff are in the process of updating the Policies & Procedures and they are almost done. Cpl Gibbs started her new role as Community Engagement Officer and is doing an excellent job. CAB member, Rick Oldenettel, had great things to say about Gibbs when he had an encounter with her. Chief was asked what the stats are on Maki; Chief will get data and relay the information. The department was accepted for the MVCPA grant; these monies will be used for drone and ALPR. One of the detectives has become very knowledgeable in the world of financial scamming. Locally, around $3 million in funds has been defrauded and Detective Morong has worked diligently to recover $1.5 million. Money is being raised for software to help detectives "catch the bad guys".

It was announced the next CAB meeting will take place on October 13, 2026.
