City of Brenham Launches Newly Designed Website

New design showcases “heart” of the community and offers enhanced ease-of-use

Brenham, Texas. The City of Brenham announced the launch of its newly designed website. The revamped website features:

- improved functionality
- enriched content areas
- clean design
- clear message
- streamlined navigation that takes users directly to the information most relevant to them

“The website redesign is another way we are committed to creating the best experience for the community. It is fully responsive with mobile devices, making it easy to navigate on a wide range of web browsers and portable devices,” says Melinda Gordon, Communication and Public Relations Manager. She continues, “Going forward, we will fine tune and modify the website, ensuring we continue to showcase the “heart” of Brenham.”

City Manager James Fisher states, “With the completion of the redesigned website, I want to thank our outstanding team of employees who made the time to ensure Brenham has another successful communication tool for users. We strive daily to exceed the expectations of our community by delivering services with a servant’s heart and with clear, open, and honest communications. Thank you for visiting Brenham and if I, or any member of my team, can be of assistance, please ask. We are standing ready to help in any way we can.”

The community, residents, and visitors are encouraged to explore the new website at www.cityofbrenham.org.
